

The Asian Golf Insider

It's December again and what year it's been! Here at Golfasian we have been gearing up for an extremely busy festive period as borders open and tourists begin returning to SE Asia.

This month's edition contains all the latest travel announcements and requirements plus all the usual insider information on travelling and playing golf in the region. Our destination of the month is Cambodia (a real favorite for golfers in the GA office) which has finally opened its borders, plus some terrific offers and tournament news.

So, Merry Christmas to all our loyal customers and golfers everywhere. We can't wait to welcome you all back!

Mark Siegel, Managing Director

QUARANTINE FREE TRAVEL

Thailand has removed quarantine on arrival restrictions and the Land of Smiles is waiting with open arms. Whatever your travel passions; beaches, temples, food or just the wonderful Thai smile, now is the time to experience a truly authentic Thailand.

Vaccination rates are rapidly increasing across the region. Governments are enforcing safety and hygiene guidelines which are being strictly followed. This is leading to sharp decline in Covid cases and a safe environment for returning tourists.

Whether you are visiting Thailand for the first time or returning, we're ready to welcome you with no quarantine and a guarantee of unforgettable experiences.

COURSE OF THE MONTH: ALPINE GC BANGKOK

Alpine Golf & Sports Club is one of Thailand's top-rated courses, and one of the best in Asia. The layout created by one of America's leading golf course architects, Ronald Garl, was the venue for the 2000 Johnnie Walker Classic PGA tournament won by Tiger Woods and again hosted the same event in 2004.

Golfers privileged to play at Alpine Golf & Sports Club will have an unforgettable experience. The clubhouse facilities, locker rooms, and two restaurants (a coffee shop and gourmet Chinese restaurant) are all excellent with service to match. Serious golfers should include Alpine Golf & Sports Club in any Bangkok golf package.
