

The Asian Golf Insider

Welcome to the June issue of the Asian Golf Insider, the source for news-breaking information about golf in Asia. Also, unique golf-playing tips for South East Asia's tropical environment and our latest tournament offers are all parts of this newsletter.

We are officially in the home stretch!

Our Asian golf destinations are opening for business as usual, with quarantines, Covid-19 testing, masks, and complicated paperwork being phased out over the next 1-2 months. Unsurprisingly, Asian golf travel is returning fast as the region's prior popularity among international golfers picks up where it left off. In particular, Thailand, Vietnam, and Cambodia are at the finish line, with international airflights now the only remaining gating travel component. Over the past two years, what we went through is morphing into a complete golf travel renaissance. What a great outlook!

On the events side, the Centara World Masters and Avani 2-Ball events returned to Thailand last month with spectacular pomp and circumstance. Many players have already signed up for the 2023 series. Please register your interest and check out our complete and ongoing Asian golf tournament calendar.

Due to Asia's numerous advantages – from publicly accessible championship golf courses, world-class service, exciting and exotic culture, and some of the best golf packages among the world's golf holiday destinations. These attributes combine to yield unforgettable golf experiences for all those who visit. Daily massages are not bad either!

Where will you travel to in 2022 or 2023? Our specialty is complete full-service itineraries created for your specific travel preferences, expectations, group size, and budgetary requirements. Please get in touch with us anytime for a competitive quote.

Until the next month, happy golfing!

DESTINATION OF THE MONTH: DANANG

Danang, Hoi An, and Hue are connected to each other by new coastal roads and tunnels. Together they make up Vietnam's Golf Coast. Vietnam's recognition as an up-and-coming golf destination is no secret, but the Vietnam Golf Coast ups the ante even further.

Da Nang or Danang dated to the early 14th century when the area was settled small collection hamlets in central Vietnam. In 1954 with the division of Vietnam into the North and South, Danang became part of South Vietnam, and in 1965 was the location of the first landing of US forces in Vietnam and apply coined "China Beach." Nowadays, the area is home to one of Asia's best beaches, many world-class resorts, and Vietnam's best golf courses. For example, Ba Na Hills Golf Club and the BRG Danang Golf Resort are ranked continuously among Asia's leading golf clubs. It is no surprise then that some refer to this area as the Vietnam Golf Coast.

COURSE OF THE MONTH: Hoiana Shores GC

Hoiana Shores Golf Club is the first Robert Trent Jones II Golf Course Architects (RTJ II) golf course in Vietnam. Forty-five minutes south of Danang International Airport and 8 kilometers south of the Hoi An Ancient Town UNESCO World Heritage Site, Hoiana Shores plays through dunes along the Vietnamese coastline. The town is known as "The City of Lanterns," and fittingly, lanterns instead of flags top the pins at Hoiana.

RESORT OF THE MONTH: Pullman Danang Beach Resort

Host of the annual Vietnam World Masters (11-17 Sep. 2022), the Pullman Danang Beach Resort sits directly on My An Beach. This beachfront property is only 5 minutes from downtown Danang, 15 minutes from the Danang Airport, and 30 minutes from Hoi An. The hotel features a long pool corridor, day spa, and health club. The rooms are contemporary styled and modern with light colors and wood accents. Two Danang golf courses are within 10 minutes from the Pullman Danang Beach Resort.

Golf in Cambodia – The World's Most Underrated Golf Destination

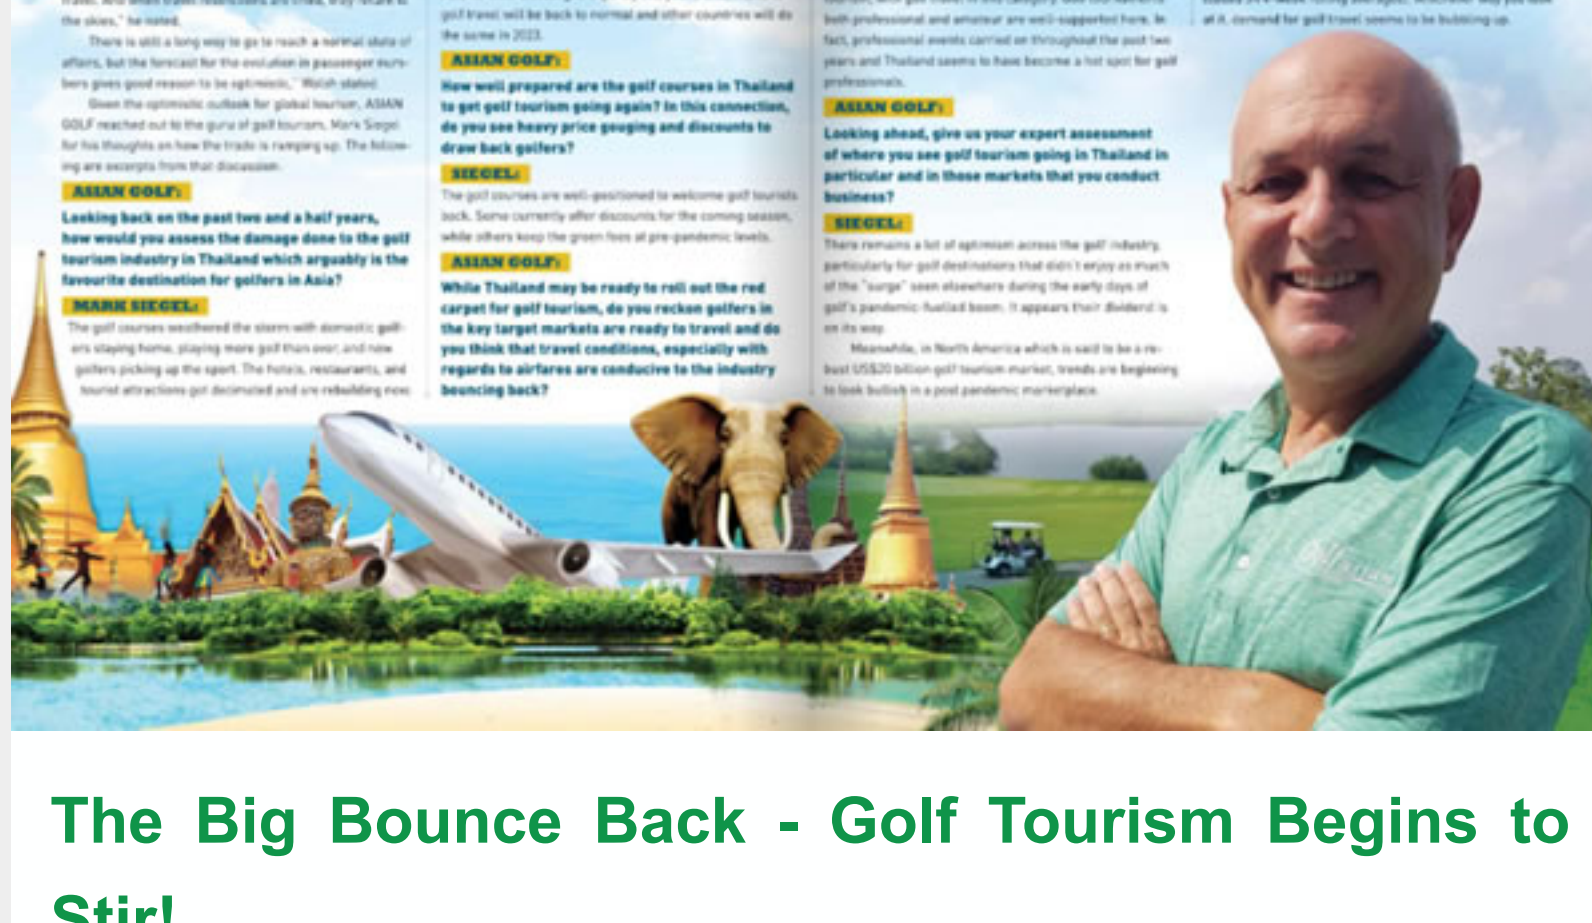

As the country reopens its doors without any restrictions to international golf travelers, major airlines have resumed flights between Phnom Penh and neighboring countries, including Taiwan, Philippines, Korea, Vietnam, Thailand, Singapore and Malaysia. Visas on arrival and e-visa are back, hotels are reopening, Golfasian Cambodia feels it is now a great time to welcome our golfers back for a golf holiday in Cambodia.

Win Zaw, our country manager in Cambodia, has sent us updated information, and we are pleased to share this with you. Click here to read the full country update.

Golfasian on CNN's Living Golf

Golfasian's Managing Director, Mark Siegel had the opportunity to speak on CNN's Living Golf TV show while they were filming in Thailand last month. Watch the entire clip to find out what makes South-East a must-visit golf holiday destination and to see for yourself why golf is booming in Asia. Watch the video.

One sector of the golf industry that too quite a beating during the global pandemic was golf tourism. Some regions of the world took a hammering and Asia was not spared in this beat down. After more than two years of a seemingly never-ending downward spiral, tourism is beginning to show signs of a pick-up. This is seen as a welcome relief to golf clubs and golf tour operators in Southeast Asia, which is the hub of golf tourism in the region.
