As we enter March, Golfasian is eager to showcase a premier destination for golf holidays in Asia - Bali. Known for its stunning landscapes, pristine coastlines, and rich culture, Bali also stands out for its exceptional golf courses.

This month, we invite you to explore the topnotch golfing experiences Bali has to offer, ensuring a memorable trip for every golfer. This month also signals the start of our tournament season, kicking off with the Amari Hua Hin Skins Golf Week. We're excited about the lineup of events we have scheduled, including the just launched Pullman Pattaya Invitational, our signature

Masters Golf Championship. Spaces are still available for these tournaments, which combine competitive golf with the opportunity to experience some of Asia's most beautiful courses. Looking ahead, the low season begins on April 1st, presenting an ideal time to book your next golf holiday in Thailand, Vietnam, or Cambodia. During this period, you'll benefit from lower rates and quieter courses, enhancing the quality of your golf experience. We're also proud to announce that Golfasian has been nominated for the World Golf Awards. This nomination acknowledges our dedication to delivering exceptional golf holidays. We would appreciate your support; casting a vote for us would help highlight our efforts in golf tourism on a global scale.

Whether you're planning to a golf holiday in Bali, participate in our tournaments, or take advantage of the low season offers, we're here to ensure a smooth and satisfying experience. For the latest updates and inspiration, follow us on Facebook and Instagram. We're committed to making March a month filled with outstanding golf adventures and look forward to helping you create unforgettable memories on the course. Thank you for your continued trust in Golfasian. We're ready to assist you in making the most of this golfing season. Best regards,

Mark Siegel, Managing Director
