The Asian Golf Insider

Welcome to the November issue of the Asian Golf Insider, the source for news-breaking information about golf in Asia. Also, unique golf-playing tips for South East Asia's tropical environment, announcements of golf travel promotions, and our latest tournament offers are all parts of this newsletter.

The coronavirus still dominates the news, but there is light at the end of the tunnel as most countries make plans and announcements on border opening and international traveling restarting. Thailand is now open to 63 countries! Additional country specific information is below in its own section as usual.

Golfasian was recognized once again at the World Golf Awards in Dubai. A huge thank you goes out to all of you who voted for us for the following awards. Without your loyalty, we would not be here today.

Thank you very much, and I hope to see everyone soon in Southeast Asia as international golf travel resumes here. Until the next month, happy golfing!

Mark Siegel, Managing Director

TOURNAMENT RECAP - AMATA SPRING

On what was a glorious sunny day at Amata Spring Country Club, we welcomed over 100 golfers to the FORE Invitational held on October 26th. The course was in pristine condition and golfers were treated to a delicious meal and drinks at Luna Bianca restaurant after their round which overlooks the stunning signature 17th hole with its island green. The live scoring throughout the round certainly made it interesting as the lead changed hands on multiple occasions. The system 36 format competition also meant that this was really anyone's to win and proved extremely popular.

A big thank you to all those who participated and a special congratulations to the winners!

Competition Results:

- Format: System 36
- Winner: Sunshine Warne (40 points)
- 2nd: Andrew Rowley-Bates (39 points)
