The Asian Golf Insider

Welcome to the September 2022 issue of the Asian Golf Insider, the source for news-breaking information about golf in Asia. Also, unique golf-playing tips for South East Asia's tropical environment, announcements of golf travel promotions, and fantastic upcoming tournament information are all parts of this newsletter.

The summer months in Europe and the Americas are over; it is now back-to-school time for the kids. Trees' leaves will start to change colors, the days will become shorter, and the weather will turn cold soon. Only four months are left in 2022, and now is the time to start making this winter's golf holiday plans.

Australia should be coming out of its winter, so it's time for a long golf season ahead. Maybe now is too soon to commit to next year's trip plans, but while there are still great deals in the market, it can't hurt to check what's available.

In Asia, we are amid the green season, with heavy afternoon showers being the norm. However, far from going elsewhere, they're more golfers here now than in all prior months in 2022 combined! Maybe it's because September is tournament month, or there is so much pent-up travel demand from limited opportunities in prior years.

It's a busy month for tournaments, with the Pattaya Men's Open this week and the Vietnam World Masters in Danang next week. A big welcome to all players signed up to enjoy these famous tournaments. You can follow the action, leaderboard, entertainment, and images from the spectacular courses hosting these events via the Golfasian Facebook page.

Club golfers from 30+ countries now enjoy our growing tournament schedule. Inspired by golfers, in 2023, we're adding new destinations, including a Masters (over 35's) tournament in Japan. Full event details are to be released next month. Check out the Asian golf tournament calendar.

As usual, Golfasian has been busy updating our tours for the high season and re-inspecting the area golf courses and resorts. I will be in Pattaya, Danang, and Japan playing some new courses and meeting our partnered hotels. You can expect continuous improvement and new tours and tournament launches.

Whether the never-ending smiling Thais, sincere Vietnamese, diverse Malaysians, or the polite Balinese, our staff locals make every golfer on their fairways feel like their 'Royal Guest.' I will guarantee you, who are the benefices of this Royal Golf Experience, will appreciate your trip with us not only during your travels but also after you return home and start planning your next Asian golf experience.

Complete full-service itineraries created for your specific travel preferences, expectations, group size, and budgetary requirements are our specialty. Please get in touch with us anytime for a competitive quote.

Until the next month, happy golfing!

Mark Siegel, Managing Director

DESTINATION OF THE MONTH: PATTAYA

Pattaya located on the Gulf of Thailand – 1 hour from Bangkok and 30 minutes from U-Tapao airports, respectively. From a fishing village in the 1960s, Pattaya has emerged as one of Asia's best golf destinations. Unlike other Thailand golf resorts, where one or two famous courses are used as magnets to attract golfers, Pattaya makes an all-out attempt to provide the best golf for players of all abilities.

Pattaya has over 30 golf courses of which all are accessible to Pattaya golf visitors. Many of the Pattaya golf courses are laid out over rolling hillsides, offer challenging playing conditions, and have world-class facilities. The best Pattaya golf clubs include Siam Country Club, Chee Chan, and Laem Chabang
