Hi {contactfield=firstname|Fellow Golfer},

Welcome to the September 2025 issue of the Asian Golf Traveler, the source for information about golf travel in Asia. Also, unique golf playing tips for South East Asia's tropical environment, announcements of golf travel promotions,

September is in full swing and so is tournament season. Two weeks ago we wrapped up the Indian Open in Hua Hin, last week the Pattaya Men's Golf Week kept the fairways buzzing, and right now Bangkok is hosting the very first Anantara Bangkok Golf Week. Next week, all eyes LAEM CHABANG GOLF turn to Danang for the Vietnam World Masters Golf Championship. Looking ahead, we're also excited to announce the inaugural Cambodia Golf Tournament, set for October 2026 - a brand-new event that will showcase the country's emerging golf scene.

It might sound like we only do golf events, but the heart of Golfasian has always been creating tailored golf holidays in Asia. Most of our golfers come back year after year, many bring their friends, and plenty discover us for the first time through word of mouth.

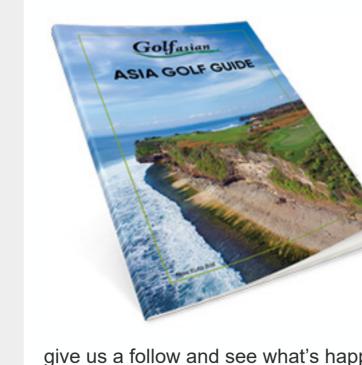

With high season starting 1 November, tee times across Asia will get tighter by the day. If you're thinking about a winter golf trip, now is the right moment to lock it in ideally within the next week or two. Just reply to this email or drop us a note on live

And if you're planning to travel with friends, buddies, or extended family, you're in good hands. Group golf trips are one of our specialties. For those looking for something on the premium side, we've partnered with some of the best resorts and courses in Thailand, Vietnam, and Cambodia to deliver exactly that.

Cambodia's capital is quickly becoming one of Asia's most compelling golf destinations, offering a mix of top-tier courses and vibrant city life. Leading the way is Vattanac Golf Resort, where two Sir Nick Faldo designs - the East and West Courses - deliver championship quality in striking cultural surroundings. Adding to the scene is the new Chhun On Golf Resort (Lakes Course), an excellent palm-lined Curley-Warner design that's already drawing attention for its creative layout and natural flow. What makes Phnom Penh special is how easy it all comes together. The courses sit just a short drive from the city, where lively riverside boulevards, markets, and a growing food scene round out the experience. With modern hotels, efficient transfers, and Golfasian's onthe-ground team, it's seamless to plan.

For golfers seeking something fresh yet world-class, Phnom Penh now stands as a mustplay destination in Southeast Asia. To book your tailored travel package and find out more information, please email us.

Just an hour north of Phnom Penh, the brand-new Chhun On Golf Resort (Lakes Course) is raising the bar for Cambodian golf. Designed by Brian Curley of Schmidt-Curley Design, the par-72 layout stretches over 7,000 yards and flows through palm-lined fairways, shimmering lakes, and bold bunkering that test both strategy and creativity.

Premium Zoysia playing surfaces ensure world-class conditions, while an island-green 19th hole beneath the clubhouse - accessible only by boat - adds a dramatic finale unlike anything else in the region. With a second course, The Palms, opening soon, Chhun On is set to become a premier hub for golf in Cambodia.

For golfers looking to combine championship-caliber play with Phnom Penh's vibrant city life, Chhun On is already a must-play. To book your tailored travel package and find out more information, please email us.

Soaring above the city from the landmark Vattanac Capital Tower, Rosewood Phnom Penh brings a new level of sophistication to Cambodia's capital. With sweeping views over the Mekong River and skyline, the hotel is a sanctuary of understated luxury, where every detail feels thoughtfully placed.

Guests can choose from five distinctive restaurants and lounges, including the iconic SORA sky bar, perched on a cantilevered terrace that has become the go-to spot for cocktails with a panoramic view. For relaxation, Sense, A Rosewood Spa draws on Khmer healing traditions, while the dramatic indoor pool, flooded with natural light, offers calm high above the city streets.

After a day on the course at Vattanac or the new Chhun On Lakes layout, golfers return to plush rooms designed in a refined residential style, complete with floor-to-ceiling windows and bespoke furnishings. Rosewood Phnom Penh is more than a hotel - it's the perfect base for combining world-class golf with the best of Cambodian culture and hospitality.
